PRESS RELEASE

The Minister of Labour and Social Security hereby informs the entire public that, the 131st Edition of the International Labour Day will be celebrated throughout the National Territory under the theme: “SOCIAL DIALOGUE, ECONOMIC GROWTH AND NATIONAL COHESION”.

The registration of workers for the Workers March Past at the 20th May Boulevard is free of charge and opened till Tuesday, April 25, 2017, latest. These registrations will take place according to the following modalities:

- For Ministries and Public and Parastatal Institutions, the registrations will be made at the level of the Regional Delegation of Labour and Social Security for the Centre, located at Nlongkak, Avenue des Banques ;
- Concerning Private Companies, they will be made at the level of the Confederations of Labour Unions concerned.

In a bid for a good organisation of this important event, companies and administrations willing to participate, can register at most sixty (60) workers drawn from their respective structures. To this effect, they will have to present the list of names of the workers retained for the Workers March Past on May 1, 2017.

Pour le Ministre du Travail et de la Sécurité sociale
et par Délégation
Le Secrétaire Général
